Nowlin was arraigned in connection with a 1981 AMC Eagle reported missing on April 1. Grayling City Police started the investigation on the $10,600 vehicle and the following day sheriff deputies found the Eagle.

In other police news, a 52-year-old Lansing woman was allegedly assaulted and robbed here by a 44-year-old Lansing man who was her traveling companion. The man allegedly kicked the woman out of the car they were traveling in after he robbed her of money. The man was later picked up by sheriff deputies. Further charges are pending from the Grayling City Police.

Rough Winter on Deer

After two years of easy winters, this year's cold temperatures and deep snows have taken their toll on the county's deer herd.

Ray Perez, local DNR wildlife biologist, said a good number of younger fawns have been lost. Six weeks of severe cold beginning at the end of December along with heavy snowfall made it rough on the young deer. Perez also said dogs have contributed in the killing of the deer. Dog owners should keep pets tied up until all snow is melted from the woods.

Perez said the young deer are still in stress and a couple of cold nights could kill more of them. He said the weekend high winds and cold temperatures didn't help.

Adult deer have fared better. Most of the adult deer checked by Perez this winter have adequate fat. Fetuses checked from female road-killed deer have been on schedule for weight and size.

Perez said every township in the county lost young deer but the Manistee River area from Deward to Sharon was hit especially hard. He said in the northern part of the county a foot and a half of snow remains - making it difficult on deer. In the south part of the county, some bare farm fields exist but snow in woods still measures 8-12 inches.

Tourism "Too Long Ignored" In State, Brickley Says

Tourism, the third-best money maker in the state, has too long been ignored by the public and government, Lt. Governor James Brickley said Friday at a tourism seminar held at Kirtland Community College.

For years, Brickley said, the state relied heavily on its industrial sector - mainly automotive manufacturing. And the state prospered. It was first in the nation in home ownership, first in boat ownership, and ranked high in automobile ownership per person.

But that sector is declining now. The time has come to look toward agriculture and tourism, the second and third leading money producers. Tourism especially looks promising because leisure time is increasing in our society while the number of persons needed to produce food is dropping.

Brickley said while the aging manufacturing sector of our economy is actually booming. A M.I.T. economic expert told Brickley the public sector and high technology industry in Michigan is growing the quickest of any state in the Midwest. Brickley said Michigan already leads the nation in the number of companies dealing in robotics.

The Lt. Governor defended the decision to spend $3.4 million on a "Say Yes to Michigan" campaign while allocations to schools, prisons, and mental health programs are cut. He said the state has to do it to help save itself, much in the same way Chrysler had to mount a huge ad campaign to save themselves.

Besides Brickley, DNR officials, chamber of commerce personnel, Michigan Dept. of Transportation officials, area businessmen, and other tourist officials participated in the seminar. See Tourism on Page 11

40 MPH Winds Blast County

Winds estimated at 40 miles per hour accompanied by snow gave Crawford County a rude April greeting last Saturday.

The Crawford County Sheriff Dept. said visibility on county roads began diminishing during the late afternoon on Saturday. By early evening many travelers were forced to stop due to the poor visibility in the blowing snow.

Travelers on the North Branch of the AuSable also ran into trouble in the harsh weather. Two out of four canoeists tipped over. One of the wet travelers broke into the High Banks Lodge to use the phone to call for help. The two soaked canoeists came out of the dunking without apparent injuries and Crawford County sheriff deputies located the other canoeists, who had been separated from the first two. County road crews worked Saturday and Sunday keeping the state highways clear and city crews plowed once during the weekend. Drifting in open areas blocked some side roads.

Some Top O' Michigan electric customers lost power Saturday night as winds damaged lines but crews, fighting the fierce winds, restored power within three hours.

Opposition Grows Against Lewiston Sewage Proposal

By Jon Thompson

The list of groups opposing a sewage facility proposed for Albert Township grows with the addition of the AuSable North Branch Area Association.

The North Branch Association went on record March 25 as unequivocally opposing the plans to build a drainfield on a five-acre site about three and a half miles southwest of Lewiston.

The 250-member group feels that even a sewage facility using the latest technology could contaminate the AuSable North Branch and its tributaries.

Albert Lilly, Jr., president of the group, also objected to the proposed monitoring of the sewage treatment facility.

He said giving the Village of Lewiston or a Sewage Management Authority the responsibility for monitoring, controlling, and testing places the responsibility in the hands of persons less likely to be affected by a malfunction in the system than downstream riparian owners. He further noted no specific plans have been developed yet concerning monitoring the system.

The North Branch Association joins the Crawford County Board of Commissioners, the Lovells Township Board, and two groups of nearby residents to the site, the Concerned Citizens of Cobb Creek and Twin Lake Homeowners Association, in opposing the plans to build a $3.4 million sewage facility in the Cobb Creek area.

The Dept. of Natural Resources assured the Crawford County Commissioners in a letter that the sewage facility is not past the planning stage yet. The Chief of the Water Quality Division of the DNR said a hydrological study has to be completed before a special use permit could be issued for the state forest land. He also said that nearby property owners to the site has also threatened a court injunction to halt the project. Either way he said the project is not past the point of no return and the DNR will require tests showing the ground water near the facility is adequately protected.

High School: The Seniors Talk

By Jon Thompson

In June, seniors will leave familiar GHS hallways to go on to colleges, military services, industrial jobs, married life, and so forth.

The following seniors from Howard Lehti's government class, a required subject for all seniors, talked about their final year at GHS. They were asked how budget cuts affected their education during their last year in high school.

Chip Durga, 18, son of Ed & Barb Durga, of Grayling. Plans to work in construction this summer, probably will take classes at KCC in future. A co-op work program he took as a junior was cut this year and he wanted to take a contemporary family life class that was cut this year.

"A library should be mandatory in a high school," he said. "You need a library for literature classes. I had to go to the county library in town this fall."

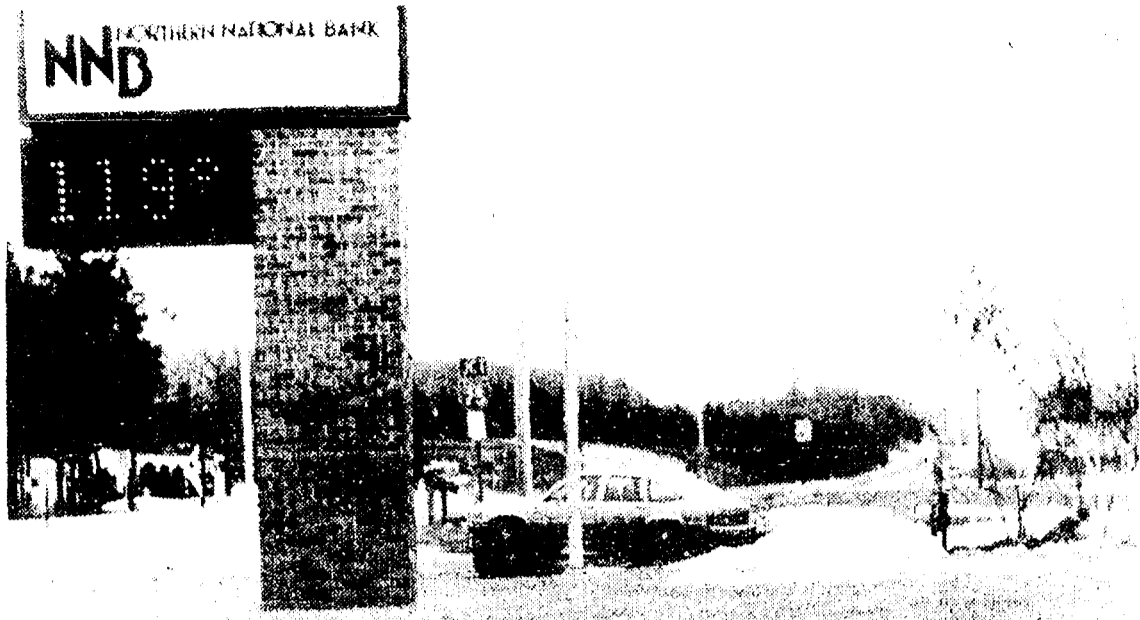

Margine Lozon, 17, daughter of Art & Ellie Lozon, of Grayling. Considering three colleges to take clerical and bookkeeping courses. She also went to the county library when the high school library was closed. "The class periods are too long this year," she said. "They went from 48 minutes to 61. Students can't handle classes that long."

Rob Kesteloot, 17, son of Mary & Al, of Grayling. Wants to go into marine biology. Planning on taking transfer classes at KCC and then switching to Florida college. He said one of his friends needs seven credits to graduate, can only pick up five because of the switch from a seven to five period school day, and consequently can't graduate this year. His friend plans on going next year to pick up the final two credits.

Kesteloot says the closed library didn't affect him because teachers didn't assign reports like they used to when the library was open.

WE WISH—Spring was in the air last week and an optimistic temperature sign at Northern National Bank in Grayling showed 119 degrees Fahrenheit last Friday. The early heat wave was just a malfunction in the temperature sign, however, as temperatures that day stayed around 40 degrees Fahrenheit.

of Patty & Paul Gorten, of Grayling. Plans to attend Concordian Lutheran in Ann Arbor to pursue elementary teaching. She said the longer hours were hard at first but now they work out better because she can do her homework in class. She wanted to try out for a musical but did not because only 8 parts were offered this year.

Karen Williams, 17, daughter of Carol & Richard Williams, of Grayling. Plans to go to Northwestern to study data processing. A class dealing with data processing at KCC was cut this year. She said there were no other changes that affected her this year.

David Case, 17, son of Neva & Maurice Case, of Lovells. Joining the Air Force, reports Dec. 8. Schedule okay this year.

Rose Archambeau, 18, living with sister in Grayling. Her parents are in Detroit. She came to GHS for senior year because of difficulties in her school district downstate. She said she became interested in school here because of the friendlier atmosphere. She has been pleased with services at GHS. David Case and Rose plan to marry following graduation.

Lisa Whitcher, 17, daughter of Ruth Ann & David Whitcher, of Grayling. Plans to study computer programming in college. After 7 years of band, she didn't take it this year because "we can't do anything. There's no money for concerts or parades." She attended a larger high school in Washington and a high school in Addison, south of Jackson. She likes GHS better than the other two. Addison didn't offer much of anything and her Washington high school was too large. She said teachers there didn't care whether or not the students came to school.

Betty Thomson, 18, daughter of Donna & Paul Thomson, of Grayling. Plans to enroll at KCC in its secretarial program. She also didn't take band this year although she's taken it for five years. "I wanted to march but they're not doing it this year."

Larry Goodale, 17, son of Grace & Lorne Goodale, of Grayling. Selected as one of 100 students across nation to be in the Young American theatre group. Wants to be selected for their national and international tour.

"My schedule was totally ruined this year. I wanted to take four career-orientated classes - now I have four classes I don't need."

"I was scared when I found out there wouldn't be a play this fall. That's why I jumped in to help with the art council."

Bonnie Keusch, 17, daughter of Rose & James Keusch, of Grayling. Heading for General Motors Institute in Flint or MSU to major in finance industry administration. She couldn't fit in a mechanical drawing class because of shortened day.

Beth Parkinson, 17, daughter of Kathleen & James Parkinson, of Grayling. Enrolled at Delta College to study computer processing. She had to drop a business machine class because of the switch to a shorter school day.

Jerry Norman, 18, son of Jackie & Eldon Norman, of Grayling. Enlisted in Navy, reports June 24. His schedule was all right this year, but "Some good teachers are gone from the high school," he said.

David Burr, 17, son of Sis & Rich Burr, of Grayling. Enlisted in Navy, reports June 24 with Norman. Closed library was a hindrance this year.

Phyllis Walsh, 18, daughter of Elaine Walsh, of Grayling. Going to Hope College to study psychology and dance. She was affected a lot by cutbacks in classes and extra-curricular activities. Had to take year-long government class in one semester this year.

"There's a lot of apathy at the high school this year. No one cares, school moral is down, some students and teachers are really unhappy and hate it."

Elementary Kids See Leader Dogs

We have had a very exciting week with a Leader Dog program at the Elementary School and a new puppy being raised. On Friday, March 19th Karen Louchart got her new Leader Dog puppy to raise. He was a 7 week old Chocolate Lab which she named Snoopy.

On Tuesday, March 23rd Nancy Hatfield put on a program for the Elementary School on Leader Dogs. Mr. Juday, who is a member of the board of directors for the training school in Rochester and a breeder for the puppy program showed slides on "Raising A Leader Dog Puppy" and a film on blind people with their Leader dogs.

Nancy Hatfield, Jeff and Steve Cowie brought in the puppies they are now raising as Leader Dogs. An extra treat for the program was Mrs. Wells, a blind lady who lives just outside of Grayling with Gypsy her Leader Dog. She let Gypsy loose so every child could pet her! Then she put Gypsy's harness back on and explained that when Gypsy was wearing her harness she's working as Mrs. Wells "eyes" and we shouldn't pet her or distract her from doing her job. We all appreciated Mrs. Wells and Gypsy for coming and being a special part of our program.

That night our 4-H club had a special meeting for the parents of members to see more films by Mr. Juday. Our other guests included Mr. Donald Peer who donated Karen Louchart's puppy to the Leader Dog program and his Leader Dog group from Houghton Lake. Also Ann Stephenson, Crawford County Program Assistant, Mrs. Irene Lahr, Oscoda County Program Assistant and Mr. Frank Capp, our new 4-H Youth Agent. Our future 4-H member Mr. James Kolka and his wife Joyce were there as Mr. Kolka will be getting his puppy sometime in April.

We really appreciate Mr. Juday and his daughter-in-law, Linda Juday for coming all the way from Boyne City for the all day presentation at the Elementary School and the evening meeting for the 4-H members. We all learned a lot from him and enjoyed having him and his daughter-in-law as our guests for the day.

If anyone is interested in raising a Leader Dog puppy for a year through the 4-H Puppy Program, please contact Ann Stephenson at the Co-Operative Extension Office at 348-2841 or Mrs. James Hatfield at 348-9789.

MY APPRECIATION

I also want to thank Derek McEvers and Sorenson's Funeral Home for all your help.

Your care and deep concern means more than I can express in words.

From Our Corner ...

Just when we were getting rid of our old dirty snow banks that arrived with all of our January storms...several types of birds have been arriving from their winter habitats...some of our own snowbirds are arriving from points south and west...local citizens had been put in an atmosphere that the snow would be gone soon, and we were thinking of tulips and trees budding...

Just when we were coming out of our melancholy spirits of the winter of '82...mother nature took care of our thoughts of spring last Saturday night when the area was hit by 30 to 40 hour winds swirling snow that resembled the weekend storms during January...possibly the only thing that Saturday night storm lacked was below zero weather (it was 8 above) and not as much snow...

The above is for our readers in the warmer climates to think twice before they head back north...we survived January and February...we can survive this, we hope this will be our last storm in 1982...

Palm Sunday?...what a day in '82...now we have seen snow here in Grayling on Easter Sunday, but it was that wet fluffy stuff that lasted until noon and then it was all gone...now this past Sunday was something different...we have never experienced a Palm Sunday that greeted our citizens on their way to church this year...the storm started to calm down during the afternoon, but still had blusters of wind when you couldn't see across the street...

We complain here about our storms, but this last one we won't trade to Texas, Oklahoma, Missouri and parts west for what they have received in the past few days...like tornadoes...we have no love for them...we understand our storm is an aftermath of the tornadoes out there...they can have them, we'll take what we had Saturday night...

Seems like all we have been writing about lately is the storms we've had...maybe we will have to take up golf again this summer so we can write about the rains that seem to hit on Wednesday...we won't...we have enough enemies now...

An idle thought...last Monday night we had one of those Hungryman's turkey pot pies for supper (our bride bowls that night) anyway we have always been under the impression that turkeys are mostly white meat, our favorite...not so with the portion we got...after almost completing our meal we finally found one chunk of white meat...we have to wonder how many of those dinners do they get out of one turkey...we will probably have one again this Monday night, but we are sure it is going to be beef...at least the meat is all the same...

We received an article clipped from the Flint Journal written by a former Grayling High graduate that contained a portion about another former GHS graduate...Kenneth Peterson, Outdoor Editor for the Journal was writing about a Trout Unlimited Clinic to be held in Flint and mentioned Marvin Bielski who also graduated from here. Peterson wrote that Bielski, who had gone into commercial fly tying and has spent the past 17 summers in Montana where he fishes and sells fly-fishing specialties. Bielski teaches biology at Carman High School. He sells a lot of western flies, but also ties for Michigan fisherman. Marv is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bielski who reside here.

Time has run out for this week's turkey, and besides the ol' fella is getting mighty weary of winter storms even with our two weeks out west...good-night T.J., Stef and Amber, and to all our readers have a nice Easter Weekend...

Callers at the Cecil Canfield home over the weekend were Mrs. Canfield's aunt and uncle, the Peter Burks of Houghton Lake, her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Galloway of Flint, and Mina Premo and son, Tommy, with a friend, of Saginaw.

46 Years Ago April 9, 1936

Wilhelm Raabe arrived home Tuesday from Texas where he had been for the past six weeks. He says the crops on his Texas lands have been fine. Billy is as brown as a nut and a picture of health. He says that he played golf just about every day he was in Texas.

After a few days of decent weather, it turned cold last week Thursday and has been keeping it up ever since. Saturday morning thermometers at the fish hatchery registered 2 degrees below zero. The cold was accompanied by snow and it seemed to be sticking with us. In fact, we are in the midst of winter weather, even though the date is April 8th.

Miss Agnes Hanson is visiting at the parental home.

Mrs. Joseph McLeod entertained several ladies Saturday afternoon, and sewing and visiting were enjoyed.

Oscar Smith was guest of honor at a party Saturday evening at his home, the occasion being his birthday anniversary. Menno Corwin and Kenneth Hoesli drove to Bay City Monday and both brought back new Plymouths for Corwin Auto Sales.

"Once a fisherman always a fisherman" was proven to be a fact, Saturday evening, when Gene Papendick, of the Connine Grocery, journeyed north to East Jordan to try his luck at smelt fishing. According to reports, Gene waded boldly into the River Jordan, warily laid his net and, after waiting patiently for a few anxious seconds, hauled in his catch. He was greeted by the frantic thrashing about of one small fish! Not to be daunted so easily, Gene spent quite a little more time "fishing" about in the water and backing up his casting style with unprintable cajolery, but the fish weren't to be taken in by any such flattery. Whether Gene feasted upon his catch, had his picture taken with it, or had it mounted, has not yet been learned. He probably ate it.

69 Years Ago April 10, 1912

Miss Minna Kraus has resigned her position at South Bend, Ind., and expects to remain home with her mother.

Miss Augusta Kraus is teaching school in the Log district, nine miles from here. The term started last Monday morning.

Miss Zina Smith has resumed her position in the treasurer's office at the courthouse after spending a week's vacation with Miss Nellie Magnant at the latter's home in Big Rapids.

Jesse Schoonover had quite a misfortune, shortly after noon Monday, when he lost three fingers from his right hand while at work at the Kerry & Hanson Flooring mill.

Howard Wheeler left Friday for Chicago where he is going to work with his uncle, William Ingley, a former resident here.

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

Why Reckon & Yield? Romans 6:15-23

Because Christians are saved by God's grace and are dead to God's law, doesn't this mean that man is free to practice sin? "What then? shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid." Verse 15. Does the Christian who possesses eternal security in God's eternal salvation by God's eternal grace, therefore have a license to sin? The answer is absolutely not, "God forbid!" Such thinking is nowhere taught in the Bible. Weak Christians who do not believe God's promises of eternal salvation and security, try to discredit such teachings by frail human logic. They say: "Those who believe once you are saved, you will be always saved, also believe you can do anything you want to and still get to Heaven." This same slander was hurled at Paul. Romans 3:8.

We prove who we serve by who we obey. "Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?" Verse 16. It becomes obvious to all that we are servants of God when we yield our obedience to Him.

The Christian has made the transition of serving sin to serving God. As Paul said, "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature; old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new." 2 Cor 5:17. "But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you. Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness." Romans 6:17-18. True Christians are characterized by heart obedience to Bible doctrine. As a sinner you yielded your body members to practice sin, even so, now as Christians why don't you yield to God's righteousness and holiness? "I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness." Verse 19. Since you had no desire to do right when you were unsaved, why should you have any desire to do wrong since you became a Christian? "For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free from righteousness. Verse 20.

The Christian has a moral responsibility to his God to obey and serve Him in righteousness and true holiness of life. The key words are "Reckon" yourself dead to sin, and "Yield" your new life in Christ in service to God. (adv.)

Completes

Infantry School

Pfc. Daniel G. Kitch, son of Lorna Morse of Grayling, has completed one station unit training (OSUT) at the U.S. Army Infantry School, Fort Benning, Ga.

OSUT is a 12-week period which combines basic combat training and advanced individual training.

The training included weapons qualifications, squad tactics, patrolling, landmine warfare, field communications and combat operations. Completion of this course qualifies the soldier as a light-weapon infantryman and as an indirect-fire crewman.

Soldiers were taught to perform any of the duties in a rifle or mortar squad.

His wife, Dorinne, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Hansas of Republic, Mich.

The private is a 1969 graduate of Sexton High School, Lansing, Mich.

5 Crawford Co. Avalanche Editor's Mailbox

Dear Whitey, I am requesting that you publish the following letter in your column. In the past I have written some rather negative comments about our system, and now I'd like to express a few positive statements.

Thank you. "This is a short story about a system that, although often criticized and obviously imperfect, works like a charm for those who choose to exploit its benefits. I'm speaking about our American system. I write this on the heels of the news that my youngest brother of 27 years has earned a Ph.D in Education, a feat quite remarkable considering his background of welfare subsistence and poverty.

Equally as amazing is the fact that his oldest sister has become an Attorney at Law; his oldest brother a Psychologist, soon to be a Doctor as well; his next oldest brother a Special Education teacher; and another brother who is a journalist; another sister who has a degree in history and his youngest sister who is currently devoting her efforts to meeting the demands of motherhood.

What is truly incredible here is that the results of drive, ambition and determination, which when manifest, draws support from our political system. The "system", if you will, sustained my family throughout my childhood and continues to support my parents at present. It provided funds in the form of grants and loans which financed most of our educational endeavors. Our children are now giving back some of what we've taken financially, as well as making positive contributions to society in general.

I wanted to give my thanks in a public forum for the freedom and support any individual can receive in America. I also wanted to express my pride for parents who held us together on an income which never exceeded $4000.00 a year.

Perhaps a few will find a little inspiration in this dissertation and realize that in most cases, failure, on an individual level, is not the result of reaching for a too distant star, but rather due to a lack of persistent effort and determination.

Sincerely yours,
John N. Brozo III

News of Good Things Growing

By Margaret G. McCall
"The incredible, edible egg," has been a slogan of the National Egg board, and I think it's a delightful tribute to one of our most versatile foods. Someone also said that an egg represents the perfect packaging design, arriving as it does neatly encased in its own protective shell.

Michigan chickens produce a lot of eggs, actually 1,540,000 last year, according to the Michigan Dept. of Agriculture, so you can count them among the good things growing in Michigan.

For an exotic dessert using eggs, easy to prepare but most festive, try Baked Alaska, also known as Norwegian omelette. Invention of this dish is attributed to an American-born physicist, Benjamin Thompson, but the origin is also credited to both a French and Chinese chef. And that makes it an international recipe, I guess.

For Baked Alaska, you use a single layer of any cake you choose. It may be any shape - round, square or rectangular. Place the cooled cake on a baking sheet or heat-proof platter. Cover the cake with a thick layer of ice cream, whatever flavor you prefer. Chill until the ice cream is very firm.

Next, prepare a meringue of three egg whites, beating until soft peaks form. Add one-half cup of granulated sugar, about 1 tablespoon at a time, while continuing to beat until the meringue is thick and glossy.

Cover the ice cream and cake completely with the meringue, place in a 450° oven for about five minutes, until lightly browned, and serve at once.

Norwegian omelettes omit the cake layer and enclose the ice cream in a light rich pastry which is then covered with the meringue. Either way, it's a dessert you and your guests will enjoy.

RSVP Reports

Sherry Haag, Director

Welcome to news of the Retired Senior Volunteer Program. RSVP is celebrating its 10th Anniversary. A full decade of service and notable achievements.

RSVP is a positive, constructive influence on the communities of our nation. It currently enrolls more than a quarter of a million older Americans as senior volunteers in a thousand counties, helping people of retirement age to use their experiences, abilities, skill, dedication, and enthusiasm to address the pressing human needs of their communities.

RSVP has earned the respect and support of elected representatives at all levels. 40% of the funding for local RSVP budgets comes from non-ACTION sources. Many cities and counties, as well as 19 states, have appropriated funds for RSVP.

Michigan is one of the states which has appropriated monies to RSVP projects in the state to be used for transportation costs. Even with the tight money, legislators realize the importance of volunteers and the importance of the volunteers time to community projects.

RSVP volunteers are unique in being service providers rather than service receivers.

In Crawford County, we've received a request from Hartwick Pines. A college student who will be working at the Pines June 12 through Sept. 15 is looking for a place to live. Her wages are low and she would be willing to help with chores in exchange for a break in living expenses. If you're interested and would like more information, give me a call at 348-4341.

Don't forget to change the date of the 9th Annual Recognition Dinner on your calendar. The new date is May 7, 1982. Time is 6 p.m. for Punch & Registration - 6:30 for dinner at the Holiday Inn.

State Representative Ralph Ostling has accepted our invitation to be our guest speaker. Also attending will be Christine Hodson, Project Officer from ACTION offices in Detroit.

Don't forget, to be a guest of RSVP you must have served at least 30 hours in the last grant year. If you're not sure of your hours, or need more hours, give us a call. For all others, tickets will be $5.00.

Receives Certification

Mika Fijolek

Louise Hayes Dance Studio is proud to announce the grade I student Cecchetti Certification of Mika Fijolek. After studying ballet for five years at Louise's Dance Studio and much individual work and study, Miss Fijolek successfully passed both oral and practical parts of this prestigious examination. The Cecchetti form of ballet was developed in the late 1800s by Enrico Cecchetti, an instructor at the Imperial Theater School in St. Petersburg, Russia. At this time Cecchetti is the only form of ballet that one can be graded in. Mrs. Hayes states, "I am very proud of Mika and hope that her certification will serve as a goal for my other talented dancers."

Mika will dance the part of Wendy in the premiere of the Peter Pan Ballet, June 25th & 26th at the Joseph Stripe Auditorium.

Proposals Offered To Ease Environmental Regulations

A series of proposals to streamline environmental regulations - some requiring legislation - that supporters say would not weaken protections, has been submitted to Governor William G. Milliken for review and approval.

Lieutenant Governor James Brickley, head of the regulatory review task force, said if Milliken approves the proposals the Department of Natural Resources will begin instituting them either through the administrative rules process, drafting proposed statutes or changing internal policies.

The proposals deal with a number of environmental quality areas, including water and air pollution controls and waste disposal rules.

Some of the changes would cut back on requiring filings of water discharge reports, streamline the permit process, allow the Air Pollution Control Commission to set reasonable emission limits on "less stringent sources," eliminate the licensing of non-toxic waste transfer facilities, eliminate dual regulation of some waste hauling firms and eliminate or modify rules dealing with a municipal junk car centers.

The recommendations also call for a new codification of the state's environmental protection laws.

Milliken called for such a re-codification in his State of the State address in January.

Brickley said the proposals will "contribute in a significant way to easing regulatory burdens while sustaining Michigan's nationally recognized environmental protection efforts."

Questions Still Abound

On Project E.L.F.

A review of the U.S. Navy's proposed Project ELF submarine communications system by the Legislative Office of Science Advisor found many critical questions remain unanswered and suggested it may not be needed anyway because new alternative technology could be available in about the same time it would take to build the project.

The project is currently proposed to be located in the Upper Peninsula and tied to existing facilities in Clam Lake, Wisconsin.

The science office said because the design has been so considerably altered from original designs, the Navy could reconsider other locations, including the Wisconsin site, which would be more cost-effective and more quickly constructed.

The science advisor noted Project ELF is not projected to be operational until at least 1987 and says a new blue-green laser system would provide similar communications by the 1990's, and maybe sooner.

The ELF system, is a one-way link to submarines, alerting them in the event of nuclear war.

The science office noted unanswered questions include how effective the system will perform, and possible harmful effects of the low frequency radiation.

The report said an independent committee of experts should be appointed to monitor construction and operation and a 1977 commitment by the Navy to shut down the project if harmful biological effects should be extended to cover all other negative effects not yet foreseen.

The new proposals of the project are currently under study by the Dept. of Natural Resources and the Michigan Environmental Review Board.

Alef, the daughter of Jack and Gloria Alef, of Grayling, will attend the session in May at Olivet College. She plans to go on to college after high school to study political science and pre-law.

First Savings
Now United
Federal Savings

First Savings and Loan Association of Saginaw, one of Michigan's oldest and largest savings and loan associations, has officially become United Federal Savings and Loan Association.

The name change is the result of First Savings' conversion from a state chartered association to a federally chartered association, a change which basically involves nothing more than the name of the association.

"This is not a merger, but rather a simple change to a federal charter which is necessary to position ourselves to move quickly on new services and proposed new services granted to federally chartered savings and loans", said William F. Lawrence, Chairman of the Board and President of the 95 year old association. "With the current dual system of state and federally chartered savings and loans, we found it to be both to our advantage and our customers' advantage to make the change. Nothing else will change. We are the same staff, officers and directors...now "United" to serve our customers better" said Lawrence.

First Savings (United Federal) is a $605 million association currently operating twenty-eight offices in twenty-one communities throughout lower Michigan.

Members absent: None.

Also in Attendance: Jerry W. Morford, City Manager; Allen V. Schreiner, City Treasurer; Robert Smock, Don Geiss, Marian Matyn, A.D. Sorenson, Phyllis Walsh, Mike Hauxwell & Dawn Haag of WGRY, Mike Russell & Mitch Mendrygal of Straits Aggregate.

Motion by Sabin, supported by Sloan that the minutes of the meeting of March 8, 1982 be approved as presented. Ayes: 5, Nays: 0, Absent: 0, motion carried.

There were no Citizens who wished to speak.

Communications were received and noted.

From City Housing Commission re: Minutes.

From A.V. Schreiner re: February Financial Report.

From M.M.L. re: Legislative Bulletins.

From Police Chief Stephan re: 1981 Year End Report.

From Beautification Committee re: Meeting Notice.

From City Manager, copies of Ordinances No. 72-3, Junk Ordinance and No. 22, Nuisance Ordinance. Mr. Morford noted that the annual junk survey and enforcement will soon be under way.

Old Business

Mr. Smock appeared to present Council with an up-date on the proposed Fish Hatchery Project. He reported on a meeting with the Crawford County Commission. The project is to try to re-open the fish hatchery as an attraction. The entire project is detailed in a 28 page report. A "use permit" from the DNR is necessary before anything can be done with the property. He requested that the City Council consider the City as recipient of the deed for the 52 acres in question. He also showed to Council an artists conception of what the facility would look like after the completion of the project. Mr. Sabin asked questions relative to operational finances. Mr. Morford asked about the timetable relative to the use permit. Mr. Smock estimated that if the project were started as soon as possible, it would be August or September before it would be ready for operation.

The request, by Straits Aggregate Corporation for Tax Abatement under Act 198 was discussed. Mr. Morford presented Council with information relative to this matter. Included was the formal application for the tax status. Under the statute Tax Abatement would apply only to any buildings and/or personal property. The land would not be included.

Motion by Thompson, supported by that Straits Aggregate be allowed Tax Abatement of 50% for 12 years. Motion died for lack of support. Mr. Sabin stated that he favored Tax Abatement for the company but not for the full 12 years due to the small number of jobs created. Mr. Russell stated that they did not propose more employees because they did not want to jeopardize their positions, but they look forward to increased business which would require more employees. Ms. Latuszek stated that she tended to support Mr. Sabin.

Mr. Thompson stated that since we are not getting any tax revenue now, 50% is better than nothing. Mr. Golinick replied that we were considering giving a company which would employ employees the same tax advantage as a company which employs 45 people.

Motion by Sabin, supported by Golinick

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, STRAITS AGGREGATE & EQUIPMENT CORPORATION, in conformity with Act 198 of the Public Acts of 1974, as amended, (Act 198) has submitted an application providing all information and requirements necessary for granting of an Industrial Facilities Exemption Certificate by the City of Grayling, County of Crawford, State of Michigan, and

WHEREAS, the Grayling City Council, under Section 16 (1) of Act 198, of the P.A. of 1974, as amended, has determined that the length of the Industrial Facilities Exemption Certificate shall remain in force and effect for a period of 8 years,

This provision is to allow for sprinkling of lawns and gardens as the water so used does not go into city sewers. Ayes: 5, Nays: 0, Absent: 0, motion carried.

No doubt most of you have seen a robin or two in the last week or so, which reaffirms for many that snow-melting time cannot be far away. Robins are okay, but there is another bird which I believe is a better indicator of the end of winter. The bird I am referring to is the junco. One morning there will be one (just one) feeding on grain scattered by the squirrels and other birds. The lone sparrow-sized bird with its gray to white breast and slate-gray back will be around for a day or so and then disappear. For a day or two the resident birds have the place to themselves, but the next day perhaps there will be twenty or thirty juncos in the yard. Depending on the weather and perhaps available feed, the flock will feed and add their soft twittering call to the normal bird chatter in the yard. For a few days they are busy scratching for food and then as suddenly as they came, they are gone. The scout has brought news of good times further north, it seems. The scout has been in the yard now for two days, so the flock should arrive soon. To complete this change of season, there is only one thing more I would like to hear and that is the high call of north-bound geese.

Oil Recycling

Our used oil is a reusable resource. Today, much of our used oil is discarded and allowed to enter our water systems. An opportunity now exists to reuse this product as well as helping to keep our clean water clean. According to Roy Spangler, Roscommon, Crawford County Extension Director, there will be an oil recycling training program held at the Holiday Inn in Grayling on Tuesday, April 13, to discuss how to set up a county used oil collection system. The Cooperative Extension Service of Michigan State University in conjunction with the West Michigan Environmental Action Council will conduct the training. The day's agenda, which begins at 9:00 a.m. with registration, includes an overview on used oil recycling, why it is important to our environment, how to set up a recycle program, assistance available, and other related topics. Adjournment will be about 2:30 p.m.

Persons interested in learning about oil recycling and how to set up a used oil collection network should call the County Extension office at 275-5043 for further information and reservations for the April 13 meeting.

Grayling Elementary School News

Mr. Brigham's fifth grade

In math they are doing division and in English they are studying proper nouns and common nouns. Then in science they are reading out of the book about snakes and birds. In art they are making calendars; in social studies they are reading about Mexico. Last week Jim Pfaff brought in a pinata from New Mexico. By Janice Helsel and Anjanette Pratt, 5th grade.

In Mrs. Fleming's third grade class they are making up their own stories and telling it to the class in English. In math they are doing division and times. In social studies they are learning about Morris Town. In gym they play four square. They are making a special surprise for Mother's Day but we can't tell you what it is because it is a surprise. We interviewed Amy Valdick and Jason Parmer. By Betty Partello and Debbie Jones, 5th grade.

Mrs. Slater's kindergarten class has an incubator in their room; about five of the quails have already hatched. When they first hatch they are a little bit damp and sticky. Once the eggs crack open, it could take up to ten hours to get all the way out. When they do get out they are very little and fuzzy. The incubator has a bottle of water attached to the edge for moisture; if anyone bumps it, it would drown the quail. In some incubators you have to turn them but to be able to know what side to turn you put x's and o's on each side of the egg. Some of the eggs are white and some are brown with black spots. By Amy Denton and Yvette Badawi, 5th grade.

In Miss Johnson's third grade class they are on levels 9 and two 8 groups in reading. In spelling they are writing their words five times each. For math the class are doing their times tables. In their class they have a reproduction of the

Betsy Ross flag. They also had slides of Betsy Ross' house in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. They saw film strips on Washington, D.C., and Gettysburg, Pennsylvania. By Debbie Jones and Betty Partello, 5th grade

RESOLUTION

IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED that I, a taxpayer of Crawford County oppose any suggested income tax increase, increase in drivers license fees, increases in license plate fees or increased taxes on gasoline and diesel fuel. I believe a cut back in state government operations and agencies will help alleviate excessive costs and allow all Michigan counties to roll back residential property assessments which are way out of line with today's economy. Further, I believe highway repair work should be let to private enterprise firms on a bid basis as a means of increasing efficiency and reducing costs. Our State Government has grown beyond all reasonable proportions and I a taxpayer of the State of Michigan want better essential services for less money. I believe that 10 billion dollars is more than adequate to provide superior services in the areas of education, police, highways, prisons and judicial systems. Areas that must be cut or eliminated are certain state agencies. For example, the 10 million request by the Department of Commerce for that "Say Yes To Michigan" is just one example of monies that would be better spent to repair potholes in Michigan highways. Michigan taxpayers are fed up with taxes and I think that I speak for the majority when I say "No More increases in Taxes of Any Kind."

Tourism

Two Michigan senators and three representatives were scheduled to appear but emergency sessions in the House and Senate were called Friday.

Snowmobiling, boat facilities, and highway signing were three areas addressed at the seminar.

Panelists said our area could attract more snowmobilers because of the large amount of state land, good terrain, and closeness to metropolitan areas. They said five problems with local and state regulatory agencies hurt snowmobiling.

1) Law enforcement agencies interpret laws differently throughout the area. They also said issuance of tickets seem to prevail over warning snowmobilers.

2) Some counties designate roads open to snowmobilers while other counties do not.

3) Grooming of trails costs exceed state reimbursement.

4) City ordinances allowing ingress and egress for snowmobilers using city motels are not standard or well-known.

5) The panelists felt the state wasn't returning enough of the snowmobile registration fees to the DNR for snowmobile programs.

Discussing boat facilities, the panel felt the state may have to allow more private businesses to operate boating docks and marinas to keep up with the demand.

In highway signing, they felt the state should allow more tourist attraction signs along public right-of-ways and modify sign laws to include a zone where community ads didn't have to compete with national advertising.

Why Plant a Tree

Trees are planted for many different purposes. Trees are somewhat unique since they are useful and provide benefits and value both while living and when harvested.

Species differ in their suitability for specific uses; but most of the objectives in planting trees are included in one or more of the following:

1. Wood Production- sawlogs, posts, pulpwood and poles.
2. Land Cover and Protection- to prevent or reduce wind and water erosion and stabilize soil.
3. Windbreaks- for protection of farmsteads, exposed buildings and fields.
4. Wildlife Habitat- to provide browse, food, and improved environmental conditions for wildlife.
5. Recreation and Outdoor Living- to provide shade and enhance the aesthetics of recreational property.
6. Investment- Christmas trees and commercial harvest cutting.

Whatever your reason for planting trees, contact your local soil conservation district for information.

These 1-2 year-old seedlings are 5-10 inches tall and are sold in lots of 50, 100, 250, 500 and 1,000.

Don't delay, call today: Crawford-Roscommon Soil Conservation District; 275-5231; P.O. Box 156; 409 Lake Street; Roscommon, Michigan 48653.

WOOD CUTTING—On March 15, 1982, Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson came into Mr. Hayes' room and showed some saws that they cut wood with and a very old saw that they used in the old days. Two people had to use the saw at one time. Mr. Stephenson said that a bullet in the wood ruined one of their very expensive saws. They find bullets in trees often. By Anjanette Pratt and Dusty Smith, 5th grade.

TRIP TO ALASKA—On March 11, 1982, Mr. Hayes had Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barber to talk about their trip to Alaska. They saw a glacier. They said the people are very casual; they wear blue jeans and tops.

They went to Mt. McKinley. At the top it was all snow. They saw grizzly bears and black bears and all other kinds of animals. They said you could not honk your horn or anything. It took them twelve days for their trip. Mr. Hayes wants to give a special thanks to Frank and Jane Barber. By Dusty Smith and Anjanette Pratt, 5th grade.

King without pyramid

Nowhere in this world is there a tomb of Jesus Christ! The holy sepulchre near Jerusalem contained the body of the crucified Lord but the grieving women who came to anoint his body found the sepulchre empty.

His mystified disciples gathered in the upper room to discuss the reports being circulated by the women. Suddenly the Lord stood in their midst.

"He lives" proclaims one of our beloved hymns. Not he lived but he lives. This is the crowning joy of Easter.

On Easter morning hundreds of millions more than have ever marvelled at the relics of Tutankamun will joyously worship the King who has no pyramid. Be among them then . . . and worship every week.
